

Lord's Supper Sacrament in the House Church

Opening Responsive Prayer, the leader reading first, and the others reading the words in bold print.

Dear Lord Jesus! You are the true bread from heaven, who gives life to the world.

Those who come to you will not hunger. Those who believe in you will not thirst.

We come to your table to receive your holy body and blood.

Help us to be humble, sincerely believing that what you did on the cross applies to us who welcome your gifts by faith.

Dear Jesus! We give thanks because in you, we are one body, one family, one people on earth.

Teach us how to love each other as you have loved us. Comfort us and give us the joy of salvation, together with the worldwide church.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your Kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours. Now and forever. Amen.

1. Corinthians 11: 23b-26: On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, he took the cup of wine after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant between God and you, sealed by the shedding of my blood. Do this in remembrance of me as often as you drink it." For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the Lord's death until he comes again.

Jesus himself, who was crucified, buried, and then raised from the dead, has now given us his own holy body and blood. Thereby he has covered all our sins.

May he strengthen us and sustain us in the true faith now and forever. Amen.

Thanks, worship and sharing.

Lord's Supper Sacrament in the House Church

Opening Responsive Prayer, the leader reading first, and the others reading the words in bold print.

Dear Lord Jesus! You are the true bread from heaven, who gives life to the world.

Those who come to you will not hunger. Those who believe in you will not thirst.

We come to your table to receive your holy body and blood.

Help us to be humble, sincerely believing that what you did on the cross applies to us who welcome your gifts by faith.

Dear Jesus! We give thanks because in you, we are one body, one family, one people on earth.

Teach us how to love each other as you have loved us. Comfort us and give us the joy of salvation, together with the worldwide church.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your Kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours. Now and forever. Amen.

1. Corinthians 11: 23b-26: On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, he took the cup of wine after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant between God and you, sealed by the shedding of my blood. Do this in remembrance of me as often as you drink it." For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the Lord's death until he comes again.

Jesus himself, who was crucified, buried, and then raised from the dead, has now given us his own holy body and blood. Thereby he has covered all our sins.

May he strengthen us and sustain us in the true faith now and forever. Amen.

Thanks, worship and sharing.